

AUDITION SIDES THE INTERROGATION ROOM

Open on a MR. BAKER, mid-30s, sitting in the middle of a dimly lit interrogation room, with another standing shadowy figure in the corner.

DETECTIVE

Mr. Baker, where were you on the night of August 13th?

MR. BAKER

August 13th? (thinking) I was doing some baking.

DETECTIVE

Baking? Would that baking happen to involve...
(throwing folder on table) pies?

MR. BAKER

Perhaps, (shifts eyes nervously around the room) yes.

But I don't see how -

DETECTIVE

(Interrogating more intensely) Because Mr. Humpty Dumpty was found beaten and whipped on the night in question, and you need to crack a few eggs to whip up a pie, (slamming hands on table and leaning in) don't you Mr. Baker if that is in fact your real name.

MR. BAKER

But...

DETECTIVE

Give me no buts Mr. Egg cracker. Murder in this case was a half-baked idea.

Now are you going to talk? (cracking knuckles)

MR. BAKER

Look, I know what you are up to, and I'm not talking.

I know my rights.

DETECTIVE

Shut your pie hole pie man! Now talk!

MR. BAKER

What... but (stammers)

DETECTIVE

You heard me. Shut up and Talk!

MR. BAKER

(Breaking down.) Alright, Alright! I'll talk.
